Best-performing IPOs with issue size under ₹1,000 crore: 5 stocks that delivered up to 149% returns

Smaller public issues have delivered strong gains in 2026. Here are the five sub-₹1,000 crore IPOs that have posted the highest returns as of August 18.

1/6

India's IPO market has seen several smaller public issues deliver strong gains in 2026. Among IPOs with an issue size of less than ₹1,000 crore, here are the top five stocks that have recorded returns of more than 50% as of August 18, according to Prime Database.

2/6

1. Omnitech Engineering | Rajkot-based Omnitech Engineering manufactures high-precision engineered components and assemblies for industries including energy, industrial equipment and automation. The company raised ₹583 crore through its IPO, which opened in February 2026 and was listed on the BSE and NSE on March 5. Its shares have delivered a 149% return. (Image: Omnitech Engineering)

3/6

2. GSP Crop Science | Ahmedabad-based GSP Crop Science manufactures crop protection products such as insecticides, fungicides, herbicides and biopesticides. The company raised ₹400 crore through its public issue and has delivered an 85% return, making it the second-best performer in the list. (Image: GSP Crop Science)*

4/6

3. OnEMI Technology | Mumbai-based OnEMI Technology Solutions provides digital lending and financing solutions through its technology platforms. The company had an IPO issue size of ₹926 crore. Its shares have* gained 78% from the IPO level.

5/6

4. Gaudium IVF: New Delhi-based Gaudium IVF and Women Health raised ₹165 crore through its IPO. The stock has delivered a 53% return, placing it fourth among the sub-₹1,000 crore IPOs in the list. The company provides fertility and reproductive healthcare services, including IVF, ICSI and IUI treatments. (Image: Gaudium IVF)

6/6

5. Laser Power & Infra | Kolkata-based Laser Power & Infra raised ₹742 crore through its issue. The company manufactures power cables, conductors and other products used in power transmission and distribution, besides undertaking power infrastructure projects. Its stock has delivered a 52% return.