

~~scan~~ scan

NIB

A quarter of firms do not have women directors

With just two days left to meet the mandatory Sebi deadline, nearly 400 listed companies are still to appoint women directors on their boards

395 listed companies on NSE do not have female representation on boards

1,478 Number of listed companies

50 listed firms, including Hero MotoCorp, Bajaj Auto, Tata International, appointed women directors last week

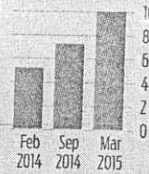

7.1% of senior management positions in India in 2013 were held by women

30% quota for women on boards set by Malaysia by 2016

500 women directors were appointed since last February when the Sebi directive came, till December

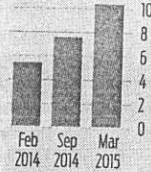

Directorship

Position held by women, as % of total

Director positions

Held by women, as % of total

Companies

With women on board, as % of all companies

