

Retail share in NSE up 50%

₹7.94 LAKH CRORE

Value of retail investors' holding in NSE-listed firms as on March 31, showing a rise of 50% from a year ago, says a Prime Database study.

21.35%

Retail holding as on March 31, 2015 compared with 20.99% in March, 2014

WHO IS THE RICHEST INDIVIDUAL INVESTOR?

₹8,331 CR

The market value of the shares held by Rakesh Jhunjhunwala (along with his wife Rekha), the largest 'individual' public shareholder, as on quarter ended March 2015, a rise of 58 per cent from ₹5,262 crore last year.

₹1,740 CR

Market value of the holdings of Anuradha Mahindra, wife of Anand Mahindra

712 COMPANIES showed a rise in retail holding at the NSE by March 2015.

3.55 LAKH INVESTORS joined the SBI shareholder base of 11.96 lakh during 2014-15

2.53 LAKH fall in Reliance Power shareholder base to 37.82 lakh.

₹19.32 LAKH CR: The value of 6.44% held by FIs in all NSE-listed companies

₹10.20 LAKH CR: The value of 5.01% stake held by domestic institutions

* Number of retail shareholders

Source: Prime Database